DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 is indefinite in that it is not clear at what time the support member is concealed, for example, is it concealed after the module is assembled there below? Claim 1 is also indefinite in that it is not clear where the attachment apertures are formed, on the headliner or on the support member. The frame of reference of the structural support member and the headliner and modules is also vague. In other words, what does it support?

Claim 8 is vague. What constitutes a sufficient space to inhibit folding and what force is to be applied to cause such folding for insufficient spacing?

Drawings

3. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the details of claims 10-11 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either “Replacement Sheet” or “New Sheet” pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Art Unit: 3612

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1-4, 8-10, 12, 15, 17, 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Serizawa et al.

Serizawa et al. have headliner 3, structural support member 2, apertures shown in figure 1 and apertures 11 in the support member that receive pins/latching devices 5b of the module. The module 5 also contains multiple modules 24,26, 22, 21.

As to claim 2, each latching aperture also comprises a positioning aperture.

As to claim 4, the latching devices 5b rotate with a virtual horizontal axis when engaging.

As to claim 8, the holes in figures 1,3, 6 are deemed sufficiently spaced to avoid folding in normal position of use.

As to claim 9, rotation about the horizontal axis is less than one revolution.

As to claim 10, see compartment 23.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

8. Claims 11, 14, 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Serizawa et al.

Control modules, for garage door openers, for example, and pins for connection of electrical wiring are common knowledge in the art, obvious to use here for their known advantages.

As to claim 14, multiple conductors (see 16) are an obvious expedient to power multiple accessories.

9. Claims 13, 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Serizawa et al. in view of Tiesler et al. 6,575,528 ('528).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to provide in Serizawa et al. a blank plate 148 as taught by Tiesler et al. '528 in order to cover a unused hole for aesthetics.

Allowable Subject Matter

10. Claims 5-7 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

11. Claim 20 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

12. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. All show module connections at the headliner.
